Collect

Holy God,
faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge
of your truth,
and draw us more deeply into the
mystery of your love,
that we may truly worship you,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Romans 5:1-5;

5 Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup> through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. <sup>3</sup> And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, <sup>4</sup> and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, <sup>5</sup> and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

John 16:12-15

<sup>12</sup> 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. <sup>13</sup> When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. <sup>14</sup> He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. <sup>15</sup> All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty and eternal God,
you have revealed yourself as Father, Son
and Holy Spirit,
and live and reign in the perfect unity of
love:
hold us firm in this faith,
that we may know you in all your ways
and evermore rejoice in your eternal
glory,
who are three Persons yet one God,
now and for ever.

PARISH PRAYERS FOR W/C SUNDAY 15TH JUNE

A Thought for Sunday: John 16:12-15

'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.'

Faith in God certainly is knowledge, indeed it is the greatest knowledge one can seek, but it's pursuit is a journey of faith. Faith in God is a knowledge which is transforming, not just educating. There are not that many kinds of knowledge that will really change you – real change (not just making you happy in your leisure). But knowledge of God is able to transform us, even within its limits of faith. That is what we mean when we talk about the glorious mystery of God.

For our Local Ministry Work and Schools

- On this Trinity Sunday and at the beginning of the Season of Trinity, may we find in God – Father, Son and Holy Spirit - a wonderful perfection that we shall nowhere else in this life.
- We pray with thanks for the Flower Festival which has been open at St Christopher's Church over four days last week. For those who have created, served, invited, welcomed and taken the time, we are most grateful.
- We ask God to help us be a church of care and love for the parish. As we build the Link Community Hub, so Lord building in our community your greater Kingdom.
- We pray for those whose lives are touched by terminal illness, and for those who care for them.
- We pray once more for the places of war, such that they seem never to cease in their in conflict. We pray for the global community, that some way-out can be found.
