God of constant mercy,
who sent your Son to save us:
remind us of your goodness, increase your grace within us,
that our thankfulness may grow, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Psalm 1;

 who do not follow the advice of the wicked,
or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of scoffers;
² but their delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law they meditate day and night.
³ They are like trees
 planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season,
 and their leaves do not wither.
In all that they do, they prosper.
⁴ The wicked are not so,
 but are like chaff that the wind drives away.
⁵ Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgement,
 nor sinners in the congregation of the
righteous;
⁶ for the LORD watches over the way of the
righteous,
 but the way of the wicked will perish.

Luke 14:25-33

²⁵ Now large crowds were travelling with him; and he turned and said to them, ²⁶ ‘Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. ²⁷ Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. ²⁸ For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? ²⁹ Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, ³⁰ saying, “This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.” ³¹ Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? ³² If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. ³³ So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Post Communion Prayer

God of all mercy,
in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing:
grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

PARISH PRAYERS FOR W/C SUNDAY 7TH SEPTEMBER

A Thought for Sunday: Psalm 1

Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of scoffers; but their delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law they meditate day and night.

It may not be clear where this path with God will take us – we each need to have faith and the strength not to follow the more well-trodden and potentially easier path that others are taking. God will sustain us on our journey through life – nourishing us and encouraging us... God is walking this path beside us and from this great comfort can be found.

For our Local Ministry Work and Schools

- God of truth and life, we give thanks for those seek to serve you in licenced ministry. We pray today for all who bring their dedication and sacrifice to service in Haslemere Parish, and to Your glory.
- We pray for all of our children and families groups, and our leadership team. At the beginning of this new school year we pray for the welcome of all who join this church in worship and community.
- We give thanks for the Week of Prayer which has been held in seven different churches across our town and the surrounding area. Lord, may we know you to be close to us and open to our calls upon your goodness and love.
- We pray for the dreadful and endless situation in Israel and Palestine. We think of those homeless, hungry and with little chance of the healthcare they need. Most especially we pray for the chance of peace.
- We pray in this beautiful autumn time, which reminds of the how fortunate we are to have the natural world around us. May all who struggle in mind, body or spirit find a closeness and comfort in God's glorious season.

Those unwell or in need of prayer: Annie Lewis-McGinn

Rest In Peace: Shirley Jullien, Mary Fillingham and Peter Traviss
