God, our refuge and strength,
bring near the day when wars shall cease
and poverty and pain shall end, that earth may know the peace of heaven
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

2 Thessalonians 2:1-5,13-17;

2 As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, ² not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. ³ Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. ⁴ He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. ⁵ Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? ¹³ But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴ For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. ¹⁶ Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, ¹⁷ comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Luke 20:27-38

²⁷ Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him ²⁸ and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; ³⁰ then the second ³¹ and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. ³² Finally the woman also died. ³³ In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.'

³⁴ Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; ³⁵ but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶ Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. ³⁷ And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸ Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.'

Post Communion Prayer

God of peace,
whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom
and restored the broken to wholeness of life:
look with compassion on the anguish of the world,
and by your healing power
make whole both people and nations;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

PARISH PRAYERS FOR W/C SUNDAY 9TH NOVEMBER

A Thought for Sunday: Luke 20:27-38

Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. Jesus taught people about how our lives are in God's hands, in what he calls the Kingdom of God, which is both life upon the Earth and life in heaven. This is what he meant when he spoke of eternal life, and it's what Christians ever since have called hope. We all know that our lives are limited, even more so for military people, so to have such a hope of life in Heaven is a precious thing indeed. Our Christian heritage supported us at a time of shared struggle and has brought out the best in our humanity - our greatest virtues, and a remembrance of those who give their lives in the hope that such a Kingdom will remain forever, just as their lives do so in the Heavenly places.

For our Local Ministry Work and Schools

- We pray for all those who in their lives have shown a personal sacrifice for the safety and wellbeing of others, especially at times of conflict and war. For all who serve in our armed forces in all parts of the world.
- We pray for our local cadet groups, with the opportunities they bring to young people by teaching the virtues of good service and a sense of commitment. Especially we thank all of the volunteer leaders who give their precious time.
- We pray for the places of conflict in our world today, especially for peace in the Gaza and Israel, Ukraine and Sudan.
- We pray for those whose experiences of military service have left them in difficult places of mental and physical health. We ask that they shall receive all the support they need.
- We pray for the work of the church in the community, which reaches out in many ways. We ask that all people in Haslemere shall know the care of God's people, with an invitation to seek faith and hope.

Those unwell or in need of prayer: Ida Macneal

Rest In Peace: Christine Alley and Angela Engels

Churchyard News - at the South & South East in Bloom Awards at RHS Wisley on 21 October, St Bartholomew's Churchyard received a Gold Award, in the churchyards category. This is an advancement on the Silver Gilt awarded last year. David Simmons and Peter Clarke received the award on behalf of the Parish. Thanks must go to all the volunteers and to Verity Sutherland and The Den. Also, a big thank you is due to all those who helped to clear and tidy Derby Road churchyard last Saturday. It was very rewarding work and revealed some interesting graves.

Opportunity to meet with our MP, Greg Stafford & John Savage, the community police officer for Haslemere. Following the burglary and suspicious sightings in Bunch Lane and Stroatley Rise, there are two opportunities to meet and discuss these issues. Meeting with Greg Stafford (to which the police have also been invited)- Saturday 8th November, 1pm, St Christopher's. Meeting with John Savage- Thursday 20th November, 7pm, St Christopher's
