Heavenly Father,
at the Jordan you revealed Jesus
as your Son:
may we recognize him as our Lord
and know ourselves
to be your beloved children;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.
Amen.

Isaiah 42:1-9;

42 Here is my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my spirit upon him;
he will bring forth justice to the nations.
² He will not cry or lift up his voice,
or make it heard in the street;
³ a bruised reed he will not break,
and a dimly burning wick he will not quench;
he will faithfully bring forth justice.
⁴ He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth;
and the coastlands wait for his teaching.
⁵ Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched
them out,
who spread out the earth and what comes
from it,
who gives breath to the people upon it
and spirit to those who walk in it:
⁶ I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness,
I have taken you by the hand and kept you;
I have given you as a covenant to the people,
a light to the nations,
⁷ to open the eyes that are blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.
⁸ I am the LORD, that is my name;
my glory I give to no other,

nor my praise to idols.

⁹ See, the former things have come to pass,
and new things I now declare;
before they spring forth,
I tell you of them.

Matthew 3:13-17

¹³ Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴ John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?' ¹⁵ But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. ¹⁶ And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. ¹⁷ And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of all time and eternity,
you opened the heavens
and revealed yourself as Father in the baptism of Jesus your beloved Son:
by the power of your Spirit complete the heavenly work of our rebirth through the waters of the new creation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

PARISH PRAYERS FOR W/C SUNDAY 11TH JANUARY

A Thought for Sunday: Matthew 3:13-17

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?' But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

And here is the key point, if God works through people, then that might be you. In fact, I would go so far as to say that God has a role for everyone. Of all that been done in this parish since this time last year, and all of it differently, none of it could have worked without people seeing their own guiding-stars and then following them in openness of heart. Throughout this year too, and probably beginning quite soon, I am going to be lighting stars in front of a few more people and asking them to make a journey towards something new.

For our Local Ministry Work and Schools

- Lord we seek to know your good will and purpose for our lives. Define us we pray as those who carry your Holy Spirit.
- We pray into the feeling of worry and concern that many of us have over the often gloomy news of world affairs. Lord, show us a better way!
- We pray for our Parochial Church Council as they meet next week, at the beginning of what will be an important and busy year ahead.
- We pray for the pastoral ministry of our parish and churches. Across many places and times we are disciples of care and love. We pray for the Pastoral Team as they plan to meet in support and encouragement for each other.
- We pray for the Link Community Hub project, which will be opening this year!

Those unwell or in need of prayer: Mavis Edge and Sybil Coe

Rest In Peace: Ida Macneal, Audrey Martin and Martin Saunders

Upcoming Life Events:

Monday 16th February	St Bartholomew's	12pm	Funeral of Ida Macneal
